Fingerprint/Card Readers:

Say goodbye to old-fashioned time/punch card readers! One of the most effective biometric time clocks for Time and Attendance systems. Fingerprint scanning measures minutiae which include certain visible aspects of fingerprints such as ridges, ridge endings, and bifurcation (forking) or ridges. All of our Fingerprint Readers have built-in card readers. Businesses with "messy" environments, i.e. garage, factory/manufacturing, etc., benefit from a combined device that provides the flexibility to use either solution alone, or in combination.

Network connectivity, either with or without Wi-Fi, also gives you the ability to install multiple devices in different locations – either within the same building, or different geographies – and access them from one central server.

HandPunch:

A biometric time clock that scans your entire hand. It measures the size and shape of a person's hand, including length, width, thickness and surface area. It improves payroll accuracy and simplicity by eliminating 'buddy-punching' and time fraud. Suitable for businesses of all sizes which continually strive to control costs.

Some HandPunch models also have a built-in card reader. Having a combined device delivers a faster method of identification with fewer manual errors. Employees will no longer need to enter their employee ID manually prior to being scanned; it is already programmed into the card being swiped.
